Chromonastri is a village and seat of the homonymous community of the Municipality of Rethymno in the Regional Unit of Rethymno of Crete. The settlement of Chromonastiri is located 11 klm southeast of Rethymno, northeast of Mount Vrysina at an altitude of 360 m and has been designated a preserved and traditional settlement. Buildings with Venetian architectural elements are scattered in the village of about 360 inhabitants. An important monument is the CLODIO villa in the east of the village. In the periphery of the village there are two important Byzantine churches, of Panagia Kera with frescoes of the 11th and 14th centuries and of Agios Eutychios in Metochi of Perdiki with frescoes of the 11th century which are considered to be among the oldest in Crete. In the center of the village there is a remarkable collection of folklore and it is housed in the Prinaris Mill.
