Agios Nikolaos Rethymno is a settlement of the Erfous Community of the Municipality of Rethymno in the Rethymno Regional Unit of Crete. The settlement is located east of the city of Rethymno and is built at an altitude of 60 meters. The village church is dedicated to Agios Nikolaos, hence its name. The church of Agios Nikolaos was erected in 1926 by Antonio Petrakaki, who also donated the plot of land where the Primary School of Agios Nikolaos was built in 1933, which still operates today serving neighboring villages.
